GENERAL INFORMATION ON CONDOMINIUMS

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of Hawaii's "Horizontal Property Act" (Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes) must be followed.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

Common elements are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called limited common elements and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged, or encumbered, and they may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the land, building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owner/tenant) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements. The leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without a vote of the owners. Some of these actions may significantly impact the quality of life for all apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is vitally important to all apartment owners that the transition from developer to owner control be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Horizontal Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners.

- A. Declaration of Horizontal Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

☐ Proposed
☒ Recorded — Bureau of Conveyances — Book 22365 Page 296
☐ Filed — Land Court — Document Number                     

Amendment date(s) and recording/filing information:

First Amendment recorded on November 4, 1988 in Liber 22537, Page 776.

- B. Condominium Map (File Plan) shows the floor plan, elevation and layout of the condominium project. It also shows the floor plan, location, apartment number, and dimensions of each apartment.

The Condominium Map for this condominium project is:

☐ Proposed
☒ Recorded — Bureau of Conveyance Condo Map No. 1155
☐ Filed — Land Court Condo Map No.                     

Amendment date(s) and recording/filing information:

- C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the way in which meetings will be conducted, and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

☐ Proposed
☒ Recorded — Bureau of Conveyances — Book 22365 Page 332
☐ Filed — Land Court — Document Number                     

Amendment date(s) and recording/filing information:

- D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt house rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and individual apartments. House rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais, keeping of pets, and occupancy limits. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial house rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

☐ Proposed      ☐ Adopted

☒ Developer does not plan to adopt house rules.

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

1. Apartment Owners: Minimum percentage of apartment owners who must vote for or give written consent to changes:

	Minimum Set by Law	This Condominium
Declaration (and Condo Map)	75%	75%
Bylaws	65%	65%
House Rules	—	N/A

The percentages for individual condominium projects may be more than the minimum set by law.

2. Developer: The developer has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws, or House Rules:

The developer may amend the Declaration pursuant to the provisions of H.R.S. §514A-12, after completion of the apartments by attaching to such amendment a verified statement of a registered architect or professional engineer certifying that the final plans theretofore filed or being filed simultaneously with such amendment fully and accurately depict the layout, location, apartment number and dimensions of the apartments as built.

The Condominium Statute (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

[ ] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[XX] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. Buyer's interest will be affected only if the developer defaults prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest If Developer Defaults
Mortgage in favor of GECC Financial Corporation	Foreclosure of the mortgage may cause buyer's interest in the property covered by the sales contract to be cancelled.

F. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial managing agent for this condominium is:

[ ] not affiliated with the Developer.

[ ] the Developer or the Developer's affiliate.

[XX] other The project will be self-managed.

G. Estimate of Initial Maintenance Fees:

The Association will make assessments against your apartment to provide funds for the operation and maintenance of the condominium project. If you are delinquent in paying the assessments, your apartment may be liened and sold through a foreclosure proceeding.

Initial maintenance fees are difficult to estimate and tend to increase as the condominium ages. Maintenance fees may vary depending on the services provided to each apartment.

Exhibit   E   contains a schedule of maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements.

H. Utility Charges for Apartments:

Each apartment will be billed separately for utilities except for the following checked utilities which are included in the maintenance fees:

The specimen sales contract contains, among other things, the following provisions:

1. The warranties set forth in the specimen sales contract are set forth in the attached Final Public Report, Page 16, Section I.
2. All of the rights of Buyer under the sales contract are and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage securing the repayment of the interim loan set forth in the sales contract.
3. (a) All payments to be made by Buyer shall be placed on deposit with Escrow and all checks shall be made payable to Escrow.

(b) All funds received by Escrow may be deposited in an interest bearing account or accounts in a federally insured bank or savings and loan institution, and all interest earned from such account or accounts shall be credited to Seller's account, except as otherwise set forth in the sales contract.
4. If Buyer, within thirty (30) days from the mailing or delivery to Buyer by the Seller of a copy of any Supplementary Public Report, shall fail to acknowledge receipt thereof, or shall fail to give his written approval or acceptance of any said Supplementary Public Report, if the same differs from the Final Public Report in any material respect, then Seller in any such case may, at its sole option, terminate the sales contract and upon such termination, Seller shall cause Escrow to refund to Buyer all payments previously made by Buyer, without interest, and less Escrow's cancellation fee, and Seller shall have no further liability; provided, however, that if Seller shall not exercise this option and Buyer shall have failed to notify Seller in writing within said thirty (30) day period of Buyer's refusal to approve or accept any material changes set forth in such Supplementary Public Report, then and in such event, Buyer's approval and acceptance of any such material changes shall be conclusively presumed to have been given, and the sales contract shall continue as a binding obligation on both parties.

5. Buyer shall be entitled to a refund of all payments to be made pursuant to the sales contract without interest, if there is any material change in the project subsequent to the execution of the sales contract, which directly, substantially, and adversely affects the use or value of (1) Buyer's apartment or appurtenant limited common elements, or (2) those amenities of the project available for Buyer's use. This right of rescission may be waived according to the terms set forth in Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 514A-63.

EXHIBIT "G"SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF ESCROW AGREEMENT

1. All monies received by Escrow shall be deposited, within a reasonable time of their receipt by Escrow and in reasonably convenient and practical sums in a special account or accounts with a financial institution or institutions in Honolulu, Hawaii, at the prevailing interest rate, and all interest paid thereon shall be credited to the account of the Seller.

2. Upon receipt of notice in writing from Seller that any payments are due under any sales contracts, Escrow shall give notice in writing to each Purchaser under a sales contract held by Escrow and shall call for such payment to be made to Escrow.

3. Purchaser is entitled to a refund of his funds, without interest, if:

(a) Escrow receives a written request from Seller to return to Purchaser the funds; or

(b) There is any material change in the project subsequent to the execution of Purchaser's contract, which directly, substantially, and adversely affects the use or value of (1) Purchaser's apartment or appurtenant limited common elements, or (2) those amenities of the project available for Purchaser's use. The Purchaser's right of rescission under this subsection (b) shall be waived upon (1) delivery to the Purchaser, either personally or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, of a disclosure document which describes the material change and contains a provision for the Purchaser's written approval or acceptance of the change, and (2) the Purchaser's written approval or acceptance of the material change, or the lapse of ninety (90) days since the Purchaser has accepted the apartment, or the occupancy of the apartment by the Purchaser; provided that if the Purchaser does not rescind the contract or execute and return the written approval or acceptance of the change as provided in the disclosure document within thirty (30) days from the date of delivery of the disclosure document, the Purchaser shall be deemed to have approved and accepted the change; provided further that the deemed approval and acceptance shall be effective only if at the time of delivery of the disclosure document, the Purchaser is notified in writing of the fact that the Purchaser will be deemed to have approved and accepted the change upon the Purchaser's failure to act within the thirty (30) day period; provided further that if, prior to delivery of the disclosure document, ninety (90) days have lapsed since the Purchaser has accepted the apartment, or the Purchaser has occupied the apartment, then the Purchaser's right of rescission under subsection (b) shall not be waived unless the Purchaser shall execute the written approval or acceptance of the change as provided in the disclosure document within thirty (30) days from the date of delivery of the disclosure document or the Purchaser is deemed to have approved and accepted the change as set forth above.

Upon refund of said funds to Purchaser as afore-said, Escrow shall return to Seller such Purchaser's sales contract and any conveyance document theretofore delivered to Escrow, and thereupon neither the Purchaser nor Seller shall be deemed obligated thereunder.

4. If Seller certifies in writing to Escrow that a Purchaser, whose funds are being held by Escrow, has defaulted under the terms of his sales contract and that Seller has terminated said sales contract pursuant to the terms thereof, Escrow shall notify said Purchaser by registered mail of such default and shall thereafter treat all funds of such Purchaser paid under such contract, as the escrowed funds of Seller and not of Purchaser.

5. Escrow shall arrange for and supervise the signing of all documents relating to the condominium project to be signed subsequent to the sales contracts including, among others, the applicable conveyance document.
